PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...Susan Bass

It's unbelievable that I have been your President for 5 years. It's been fun and an honor serving in this position, but it's time to pass it on to a new CNN president. Sandy Panattoni has accepted the honor of becoming your new President. I will remain on the Board as Parliamentarian, offering Sandy support and advice. Sandy Huckaby has been my Parliamentarian and has advised me on many occasions. Good luck to Sandy P. and let's hope for many good experiences ahead for the next two years.

READERS CORNER...MaryAnn Evans 772-8630

If you are a reader and would like to share your views on a book or an author, please send those to me, MaryAnn Evans, any time before each month's Luncheon. This month's review is from Ann Soares:

"The Edelweiss Sisters" - Kate Hewitt (May 2021)

This was best book I've read in a long time. Author writes so well; a gripping historical fiction. She moves the story along, portraying superbly the very different characters of the three young adult Austrian sisters at the beginning of Hitler's takeover of their country. As they mature and Austria's situation becomes intolerable for the people, each sister takes very different paths to cope/rebel and ends up in dire circumstances with the Nazis. I rarely feel emotion while reading fiction, but this author really provoked it!
